4TH IMMUNE CAMP REUNION

Soldier Organizations Cement Ties of Comradeship—Tribute to the Ladies—Undivided Loyalty.

"I stand here to proclaim the undivided loyalty of the south to the country and flag of our fathers. We are true to 'Old Glory' and want to see it fly in all its grandeur over the greatest of all countries. The flag of our country forever."

This and other patriotic declarations by Representative A. A. Wiley of Alabama, in the course of an impassioned address last evening before the Spanish War Veterans of the District and their friends, was greeted with applause.

The occasion was a reunion and reception by the Fourth Immune Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, at headquarters, 719 8th street, the guests being the members of the Loyal Society and the officers and members of the several local garisons of the Army and Navy Union. The attendance was large, there being many veterans of the G. A. R. also present.

The first number on the program was a melody of patriotic airs by Mrs. Kathryn Wood. This was followed Representative A. A. Wiley.

By an address of welcome by Commander Eberly of Fourth Immune Camp. He spoke of the happy relations that exist between the organizations of the Spanish War Veterans and the ladies' auxiliaries.

"There is another object in view in these reunions. There are a great many excellent Spanish War Veterans who have comrades in deeds and who should be comrades by association. To that end I have instructed the members to bring to these reunions all they could find and induce to come that they might see what manner of people we are."

All Over United States.

"Let me tell you that our auxiliaries extend all over these grand United States. I have no doubt there are many of you here who have a father, husband, brothers, or sweetheart in some distant section of the country. Shouldn't it be to know that as soon as a telegram could reach the nearest auxiliary, he would have the same careful attention almost as though under your own supervision. For this the auxiliaries are organized, but they need your membership to give them power."

Brigadier General Andrew S. Burt, United States Army, retired, was the next speaker. He began by saying one of the wisest things the Spanish War Veterans had done was to enlist the ladies in their cause, by giving them the right to vote, daughters, sisters and friends. He added that man can accomplish nothing when he has the women behind him. General Burt spoke of Mrs. Burt as his "commanding officer" and declared he had gotten a pass from her to attend the reunion.

Describing his campaigns against the Indians in the far west Gen. Burt said he had given him contained nearly one hundred of the letters of the alphabet. Translated its meaning was "Big-White-Chief-Little-Man-Who-Fights-the-Spanish-a-Great-Deal." He said Mrs. Burt was in one Indian village with him and behaved like a veteran soldier under fire. Also that she had often accompanied him in his Indian campaigns.

Ties of Comradeship.

In conclusion Gen. Burt declared that soldier organizations were good things, as they cemented the ties of comradeship and kept fresh in memory the glorious achievements of the American fighting men—the very best under the sun.

Mr. T. G. Lewis gave several comic readings in dialect, and Prof. James A. Joyce, musician of the Army and Navy Union, rendered a cornet solo and sounded "taps." Representative Wiley, who was the first to hold a commission in that war from the 5th United States Volunteer Infantry or Immunes in the war with Spain, was then the speaker. Colonel Wiley is an active member of Henry W. Lawton Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, of this city. He first paid a glowing tribute to the ladies, directing his remarks particularly to those who are affiliated by fraternal ties with the Spanish War Veterans.

"It is a good omen," he said, "to see the ladies interested in a cause. They can always be found in the cause of humanity, justice and right. They are the first at the cross and the last at the tomb. The poet has truly said, 'The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that moves the world.' Woman's realm is the human heart. Her most glorious work is in the home."

"I see here," Colonel Wiley added, "men from all sections of the Union who gallantly responded to the call of duty in 1898. I hold a commission in that war from William McKinley, the ideal President of a great country. I treasure that commission as one of my most beloved and prized possessions."

Hearty applause greeted the mention of the name of the late President McKinley. Col. Wiley again called forth vigorous applause when he drew a word picture of the more than two hundred thousand young men from the north and the south who promptly responded to the call of President McKinley for volunteers in 1898. He told how they touched elbows and marched side by side to the combined tunes of "Yankee Doodle" and "Dixie."

"These boys of the north and south," he remarked, "fought together as brothers under the starry folds of 'Old Glory.' I am glad I am a citizen of the United States. I am glad I was born on American soil. I am glad I first saw the light of day away down south in Dixie, where the mocking bird sings you to sleep and the air is filled with the fragrance of the sweet magnolia and other blooms."

Loyalty of the South.

Colonel Wiley then proclaimed "The un-and the country that has, by reason of the war with Spain, been reunited more strongly than ever in the ties of American brotherhood."Let it be known throughout the world," he suggested, "that we trust in our people for our rights. That the liberty of the citizen—the individual right of man—has given life and strength to the republic and perpetuity to its institutions. If necessary, we would spend every dollar in the treasury and enlist every citizen, not for conquest, but for the protection of our constitutional rights and liberty—to maintain the Constitution and defend our flag. One land —our country evermore." Miss Mary Ford then recited "The Whole Creation, U. S. A." and "The Man Behind the Gun."Captain R. H. Wood read letters of regret from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry, Major Frank Gordon, Representative Denby, and explained that Public Printer, Stullings was detained by important official business.Capt. Wood, by request, read an original Memorial Day poem by Mrs. E. Gertrude Mitchell, entitled "The Dead of the War With Spain at Arlington." There was a recitation by William Somers and another by Henry R. Boynton, and a solo by Mr.

Milton C. White."The Coming National Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans at Washington, October 8, 1906," was the subject of an address by Capt. J. Walter Mitchell, secretary of the national encampment committee.The last speaker was Commander J. J.
Gordon of Theodore Roosevelt Garrison Army and Navy Union, who was mustered in as a member of the 4th Immune Camp of Spanish War Veterans last evening. He made a strong plea for soldier comrades and related a number of stories and soldier yarns. Refreshments were served.Attendance of Auxiliaries.
The ladies of the District Auxiliary and of Edith K. Roosevelt Auxiliary entered the hall in a body soon after the program had been opened.They were headed by the District president, Mrs. Ida M. Galloway, and the department vice president, Mrs. Isabel Morgan. The party comprised Miss E.
Frances Duffy, president of the Edith K.
Roosevelt Auxiliary; Mrs. Anna M. Baden, Mrs. Anna Smith of the 4th Immune Camp; Miss Margaret, Miss Farquhar, Miss Tillie Roth, Miss Minnie Roth, Mrs. Harriet L. Scribner, Miss Ada M. Lee, Mrs. Nellie M. Beckley, Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Mrs. Jennie B.

ciety, also attended the reunion in a body.Lost Child Restored to Parents.
Isaac Williamson, five years of age, reached this city with his parents Tuesday from Scotland. The parents rented a room in a house on Missouri avenue and the boy went out yesterday in search of companions. He failed to find any children in the neighborhood to entertain him, and was picked up as a lost child. Isaac was given a ride to the house of detention, and about the time he reached there his mother called at police headquarters and inquired for him. The boy was driven to headquarters and turned over to his mother.Estate Devised to Wife.

INTERHIGH DEBATE

CENTRAL AND EASTERN SCHOOLS TO DISCUSS CHINESE EXCLUSIONAll the interests in the academic high schools is at present centered upon the final interhigh school championship debate, which will be held at the Central High School tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the assembly hall.The teams in the contest tomorrow are the Eastern and Central, each of which in recent debate has vanquished the Western men. Central recently had the honor of also defeating the debaters of the Central High School of Philadelphia. The consequence is that as the Business and McKinley schools have not attempted to enter the arena, the decision tomorrow will determine which of the schools shall bear the forensic honors for the year.The question at issue between the teams affirms that the Chinese exclusion acts should be repealed. The Central School will maintain the affirmative.It is expected that Supervising Principal Charles S. Clark will act as chairman, the judges being Representative J. Adam Bode, W. R. Vance, dean of the law school, George Washington University, and James Howard Gore, professor of mathematics in the same institution.

The Competing Teams.

The Central team is made up of E. O.
Schreiber, A. B. Gillilan and F. H. Koschwitz. The fourth member of the team, Roger F. Palma, will not debate, as illness prevented his taking part in the recent Philadelphia-Washington match.The Eastern debaters are Z. Pryor, D. B.
Priest, Samuel Bryan and an alternate.Each address will be twelve minutes in length, though Mr. Bryan, who will make the summary for the negative, will be at
